

11 Beautiful CROWN MOULDING Design Ideas

1

MIX OF SIMPLE AND DECORATIVE

He likes modern, she likes shabby chic. This kitchen does an amazing job of marrying the two styles. The decorative cabinetry sings to her shabby, luxurious side. However, the room stays minimalist, modern with its stainless steel appliances, recess lighting and broad mouldings.

LEFT MY HEART IN ITALY

Every room should tell a story, this room tells of rich history, decadent meals and Tuscan charm. The mouldings in this room modernize the rustic paint and antique decor. The trim draws your eyes upward and makes the room feel taller despite the matching walls and ceilings.

ENCASE THE DOORWAY

Feeling happy and bold? Bright white and yellow are known to widen your eyes and focus your attention. The doorway in this dining room demands your attention. Adding a large casing and accent moulding to the doorway makes the ceiling feel higher and the room feel brighter.

LAUNDRY ROOM HEAVEN

The words laundry and heaven should not be in the same title, until you put thoughtfulness and design into the room itself. The dark blue paint and bright white cabinets would not be complete without the generous, wide lines that the moulding adds. Together these elements make this laundry room speak comfort and cleanliness.

VOLUMIZE BASEBOARD MOULDING

Homes that have rich architectural details are typically more traditional in style. These homes look best with six inch baseboards. In contrast, modern style homes don't usually have a lot of moldings and a shorter four inch baseboard looks better in the room.

MOULDING AND DRAPERY, OH MY!

So subtle, yet so elegant. Expand your crown moulding horizons by incorporating it into other room elements, such as your window coverings.

LUXURIOUS BATHROOM CONTRAST

The warm tones of this bathroom feel earthy and rich at the same time. The mouldings create defined lines and extenuate the size of the bathroom.

HEART OF THE HOME

Your kitchen is the heart of the home and should echo grace and love. In this kitchen substantial crown moulding decorates the ceiling, cabinets and walls. It adds beautiful ornamentation to a room designed for family bonding.

COHESIVE KITCHEN CABINETS

These modern, distressed finished cabinets coupled with stainless steel appliances make this kitchen feel open and inviting. Adding the simple, elegant moulding to the cabinetry was the perfect finishing touch.
